A Pilgrimage into the Golden Age of Andalusia

April 24–May 4, 2018
Illuminated Journeys and First Plymouth Congregational Church invite you to the beauty and mystery of Andalusia
April 24–May 4, 2018

This pilgrimage explores the “Golden Age of Spain.” From 711–1236, Andalusia, known in those days as “The Ornament of the World,” was renowned as a cultural and intellectual center where Jews, Muslims and Christians lived and worked side by side.

April 23, 2018: Fly to Sevilla (Monday)

April 24: Arrival Day/Cordoba (Tuesday)

Arrive in Sevilla before 2 pm, gather our luggage, go through customs and meet our bus and driver. After we gather, we’ll drive toward the hotel in Cordoba. In Cordoba, you are free to take a nap or stroll near the hotel. A brief group gathering before dinner will provide time to cross the pilgrimage threshold into this “golden journey.”

Stay: Cordoba

April 25: Cordoba (Wednesday)

Following breakfast, we will meet our guide and visit the Mezquita, one of the most remarkable, beautiful, and unique buildings in all of Spain. The Mezquita of Cordoba has a Christian cathedral built into a mosque (784) on the foundations of a Visigoth church. It is regarded as perhaps the most accomplished monument of the Umayyad dynasty of Cordoba. Following the Mezquita, we will take a walking tour of the Old Jewish Quarter of Cordoba, ending with a tour of the synagogue. After lunch, we’ll visit Madn art-al-Za’r, the “beautiful town,” or “the town of Zahra.” Medina has the ruins of a vast, fortified Arab Muslim medieval palace-city built by Abd-ar-Rahman III al-Nasir, (912–961) Umayyad Caliph of Cordoba, and located on the western outskirts of Cordoba. An evening group meeting and dinner gives us time to reflect on the day.

Stay: Cordoba

April 26: Granada (Thursday)

Today we journey to Granada, stopping in the city of Linares to visit the Andres Segovia museum. More than any other 20th century Spanish guitarist, Segovia popularized the guitar by bringing it to the concert stage. He is considered by many as the “father of the modern classical guitar.” We’ll stop for lunch along the way, arriving in Granada in time to visit the Granada Cathedral and Royal Chapel. This evening, you will enjoy a tapas dinner on your own, followed by a late excursion to the gypsy caves above Granada to experience the dramatic flamenco traditions of this great city and explore the mystery of “duende.”

Stay: Granada

April 27: Granada (Friday)

Today we visit the Alhambra, one of the most remarkable sites in the world. Designated a UNESCO world heritage site in 1984, the Alhambra is a palace and fortress complex of the Muslim rulers of Granada in southern Spain placed high on a hill above the city of Granada. Once the residence of the Muslim rulers of Granada and their court, the Alhambra is now one of Spain’s major visitor attractions exhibiting the country’s most famous Islamic architecture together with 16th century Christian and later additions in buildings and gardens that created its image as seen today. Free time after lunch for shopping, journaling, exploring, or resting with an evening gathering and dinner.

Stay: Granada

April 28: Granada (Saturday)

Following breakfast, we will meet our guide and visit the Great Mosque of Granada followed by a walking tour of the Albayzin, the old Muslim quarter of Granada, where you’ll find lunch and enjoy time to explore its ancient winding streets. A short late afternoon bus ride will take us to the House/Museum of Frederico Garcia Lorca. Considered one of the greatest poets and of Spain, Garcia Lorca achieved international recognition as an emblematic member of Spain’s avant-garde. He was killed on the eve of the Spanish Civil War.

Stay: Granada

April 29: Coast/Ronda (Sunday)

Today we say goodbye to Granada and enjoy a scenic drive along the Costa Tropical then along the exquisite Costa del Sol as we make our way to the dramatic beauty of the white hilltown of Ronda. We’ll find lunch along the way and arrive in Ronda in time to explore this unique city. In the evening, we will enjoy dinner at our hotel.

Stay: Ronda

April 30 Ronda (Monday)

Today we make an excursion to the Pileta Cave which features the oldest cave paintings in all of Europe. Just outside Ronda, we’ll sample regional food for lunch and tour a local boutique winery. A late afternoon return to Ronda will allow you to rest or explore followed by a group gathering and dinner on your own in this beautiful village.

Stay: Ronda

May 1: Sevilla (Tuesday)

After breakfast, we’ll enjoy a beautiful drive across the mountains. On our way, we’ll meet a local guide who will take us on a day tour to the olive oil region around Sevilla visiting an olive mill in Zahara de la Sierra and then lunch in Arcos de la Frontera. A late afternoon arrival in Sevilla will allow time to rest or explore before dinner.

Stay: Sevilla

May 2: Sevilla (Wednesday)

Tour the Seville Cathedral and the Alcazar in the heart of the old city. Then, we will head North of the cathedral, up Calle Sierpes and into Santa Cruz, the former Jewish Quarter where we’ll find lunch. A free afternoon will allow you to enjoy resting, shopping or exploring Sevilla on your own. In the evening, we’ll be led through Sevilla on a “tapas tour,” discovering the history and tastes of this unique Spanish tradition.

Stay: Sevilla

May 3: Sevilla (Thursday)

Following breakfast, we’ll tour the “Bellas Artes” Art Museum after which you are free to find lunch and enjoy Sevilla on your own. A farewell gathering and dinner will provide an appropriate ending to this life-changing journey.

Stay: Sevilla

May 4: (Friday)

Fly home from Sevilla

Participants should schedule a departure flight leaving after 9 am, Friday, May 4, 2018

Welcome!

You are invited to join us not as a tourist, but as a pilgrim. Along the way you will be encouraged to approach each experience with contemplative awareness and each sacred site with care. Time will be given for learning, integration, meditation and interaction. As we journey together, we will focus on major themes from Spanish history and spirituality, especially the “Golden Age of Al-andalus.” Time will be spent exploring how those themes can be integrated into our lives.

Optional meditative sessions will include the music of the Taizé community, poetry, journaling, small group interaction, discussions with our leaders, Spanish music and prayer.

Because registration is limited, group size will encourage personal interaction in style and content. When we are joined by local specialists, artisans and guides, there will be opportunities for interaction. We are confident that your journey will be a fulfilling one. We have gone before you, having traveled to Spain many times to meet with those who will join us as we go. We have visited the sites on our schedule, and have personally chosen the accommodations, guides, and meals.

You are assured of a complete and well-planned journey. This Illuminated Journeys pilgrimage provides the perfect introduction to Southern Spain, its people, history, culture and spirituality.

April 24 – May 4, 2018

Brad Berglund is an author, pastoral musician and spiritual director. He is an experienced tour guide and has special skill in the spirituality of pilgrimage. Brad’s love for Spanish culture and spirituality began during college when he studied classical guitar in Madrid. He has returned to Spain many times. Brad will accompany this pilgrimage.

To enhance your experience, other informative guides, musicians and artisans will join us along the way.
